Quarterly commentary

The Fund's return to investors during the quarter was stable with a return rate of 0.02% p.a. throughout the period. The Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA) increased official cash rates in May and June, moving from the historically low rate of 0.10% to 1.35%. The portfolio yield is benefiting from the increasing cash rates with the Fund deposit rate under review for a July increase. Portfolio yield is expected to continue to increase in the coming year as cash rates increase.
