Make the most of your investment

► The power of compounding

Compounding can be a powerful tool in wealth creation. Reinvesting distributions can be one of the easiest and cheapest ways to increase your holdings over time. You're compounding your investment's growth by continually adding more units which, in turn, will generate distributions of their own.

Why not reinvest your half yearly distributions?

► The benefits of making it regular

Making regular contributions to your investment can both grow your investment and smooth the effects of market highs and lows.

Why not add a Regular Savings Plan to your investment? Establish one from as little as $50 per month.

You can also use BPAY® to add to your investment at any time with as little as $100.

See your statement for your BPAY reference number.

Fund Performance⁵

The Fund returned +3.7% for the quarter, disappointingly behind its benchmark's very strong gain of +8.4%. The Fund also lagged for the full calendar year, returning +5.7% versus the +12.2% of the benchmark. The main reasons for the poor relative performance were disappointing performances from key stocks.

Global share markets were up significantly in the final quarter of 2023 as investors gained increasing confidence that interest rates in most parts of the world were at their peak and that rate cuts were likely in 2024.

Local markets were also up strongly, with the ASX 300 up +8.4% for the quarter. Real Estate was the strongest sector, up +15.8%, responding to long-term interest rate falls and Health Care was also up significantly, +13.3%, off the back of a big gain by CSL.

Many of the fund's holdings performed well over the quarter including CSL and Charter Hall Retail, as well as NAB, Aurizon and Sonic Healthcare. Tabcorp fell as consumers reduced their discretionary spend, leading to weaker gaming and wagering revenue. The fall was cushioned by news of winning the Victorian license renewal, which should bolster earnings. Metcash was also disappointing, dropping despite posting strong results in its food and liquor divisions.

Outlook⁵

While inflation appears to be falling in most developed markets, IML expect markets to remain volatile and trading conditions to continue to be difficult for many businesses in 2024. Bullish commentators appear to think interest rate cuts are not far away in Australia, but it's important to note that while goods price rises have moderated significantly, services inflation is more persistent. Freight rates are also rising again with the Suez Canal shipping disruption.

CY23 has been a disappointing year for the fund and well below IML's expectations. Despite this, IML enter 2024 confident that their disciplined and focused approach will be rewarded, while acknowledging the need to continuously improve their processes.

Footnotes

1. Fund performance figures are calculated before tax and after fees and costs; using withdrawal prices and assumes distributions are reinvested. Past performance is not an indication of future performance.
2. The benchmark for the Fund is the S&P/ASX 300 Industrial Accumulation Index.
3. Morningstar rates mutual funds from one to five stars based on how well they've performed (after adjusting for risk) in comparison to similar funds. Within each Morningstar Category, the top 10% of funds receive five stars, the next 22.5% four stars, the middle 35% three stars, the next 22.5% two stars, and the bottom 10% receive one star. Funds are rated for up to three time periods—three-, five-, and 10 years—and these ratings are combined to produce an overall rating. Funds with less than three years of history are not rated. Ratings are objective, based entirely on a mathematical evaluation of past performance. They're a useful tool for identifying funds worthy of further research, but shouldn't be considered buy or sell recommendations.
