¹Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, Sandhurst, is authorised to collect your employee's Tax File Number (TFN), which will only be used for legal purposes and in accordance with Sandhurst's privacy policy. If your employee has authorised you to provide their TFN to their super fund, then you must supply the TFN to Sandhurst as required by law. However, if you have not been authorised by your employee to supply their TFN, while it is not an offence for your employee not to quote their TFN, there may be consequences. Please refer to the 'How Super is taxed' section of the PDS about the consequences of not providing TFNs.

²By placing a tick in the yes box above, I declare that the employee is actively performing or capable of actively performing all of the duties and work hours of his or her usual occupation free from any limitation due to illness or injury for at least 30 hours per week. A person who is on employer approved leave for reasons other than illness or injury, who would otherwise be capable of performing their usual occupation, for at least 30 hours per week (free from any limitations due to illness or injury) will be considered as having met the Active Employment requirement. For further details refer to current Bendigo SmartStart Super Insurance Guide available at www.sandhursttrustees.com.au.
